

Dear beloved friends and family of College UMC—

While we are not able to gather for in-person worship this Sunday and for several weeks to come, I will still be leading us in a worship opportunity this weekend. By Sunday morning, you should be able to go to our website www.collegemethodist.org where you can gather with your loved ones in the safety of your home and hear a scripture reading, devotion, and time of prayer led by me from our sanctuary. Due to logistical and copyright concerns, we are not equipped to have music as part of what we are able to offer online. I am grateful for Scott Cole and Dave Current for their incredible work to make this worship experience possible. I am grateful for the opportunity to share in worship with you, if even in this virtual way.

I anticipate we will post these worship services each week until we are able to gather once more as the people of College UMC together. In the meantime, let us remember that while we are unable to be the church gathered, we can still be the church connected. College UMC is NOT the building, beautiful and beloved as it is. College UMC is the PEOPLE, who are growing deeper in their faith and into greater connection with our community. Please don't hesitate to invite your friends to join us for virtual worship this weekend!

And keep connected with our website in these days and weeks ahead for additional updates and opportunities to be of care and support to our community.

And, as always, be in touch via email at ericmooreumc@gmail.com or ericmoore@collegemethodist.org or via my cell phone at (660) 888-9457.

Blessings,
Pastor Eric
